FFTC can help you establish a plan to ensure your unique legacy.

Endow Your Annual Giving

Ensure the causes you support today become a part of your charitable legacy. You can address current and future needs in an area of personal importance by creating an endowed FFTC Designated Fund or FFTC Field of Interest Fund. Endowments exist in perpetuity and are a powerful way to leave a lasting gift.

Invest in Your Community's Future

As time passes, your community's most compelling issues will evolve. By leaving a portion of your planned gift to an unrestricted FFTC Community Impact Fund, you can entrust FFTC to address unexpected community needs and opportunities, ensuring permanent, strategic support for the causes you most value, even as needs and organizations change.

We can't predict what challenges our community will face. But you can ensure that, together, we'll be ready to respond.

Create a Family Legacy

FFTC offers a unique combination of personal service, local resources and expert guidance to help you pass the tradition of philanthropy to the next generation. We will work with you to identify shared family values, and to design a philanthropic legacy that ensures your family values are honored by future generations.

Note: A one-time planned gift fee equal to 0.5% of the value of the realized planned gift will be assessed to support FFTC's charitable work. For funds other than endowed funds, the minimum fee is $3,500.

Power of Legacy

Lucille Puette Giles gave generously throughout her life to a variety of charitable causes. She capped her tradition of philanthropy with an extraordinary, unrestricted bequest of $35 million to Foundation For The Carolinas in 1996.

The endowed gift entrusts FFTC to honor Giles' legacy in perpetuity by addressing ever-changing needs and opportunities in our community.

To date, $56 million in grants have been awarded to nonprofits from the fund, while maintaining a current market value of more than $37 million.*
